THE END OF AN ERA:

THE GOD WHO'S ALWAYS THERE

GENESIS 25:1-11

“The End of an Era: The God Who’s Always There”
Genesis 25:1-11

In Genesis 25, Abraham _____ . (25:1-11)

- We have journeyed with Abraham for _____ years.
- It’s the end of an _____, but God is still _____.
- God is the _____.
- When Abraham is gone, God _____ Isaac. (25:11)
- Our faith, hope, and lives are supported and sometimes carried by other people, but it is God who is always _____.
- In Genesis 25, we learn that God’s _____ this.
- God _____ us to be a part of what He is doing, but God does not put all the responsibility on our shoulders.
- Genesis 25 . . .
 - God is always _____.
 - We need people, but God is the _____.
 - God _____ us to be a part of what He is doing, but God’s _____ this, so we can _____ the part we get to play.
- I think this is part of what is included as God says in Psalm 46:10, “Be _____, and know that I am God.”

For next week: Read Genesis 26:19-35.
