I WANT THE CATS T WIN

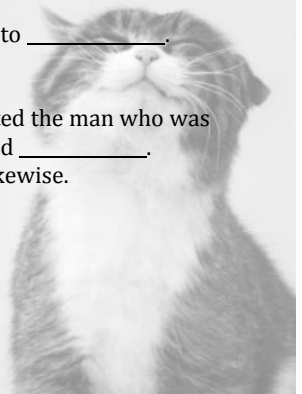

Romans 5:6-8,10

"I Want the Cats to Win"
Romans 5:6-8,10

"The cats have to _____" attitude runs directly opposite to the invitation and command of Philippians 2:1-11.

- How many times did the attitude of "me _____" come into play over the past week?
- Can we take a step toward Philippians 2 and live with the attitude of "I want the cats to _____"?
- The cats don't have to lose can mean we simply _____ away.
- We are to have the attitude of _____.
- Jesus had the _____ and _____ to crush us.
- Jesus _____ Himself and _____ us.
- We humble ourselves ...
 - not because they _____ it.
 - not to prove we are the _____ person.
 - not so they will say they are _____.
 - because that is exactly what _____ did for _____.
- Instead of just celebrating Christmas, I will be _____ by Christmas and respond in a way which _____ the gift I have received.
- We want the other person to _____.
- Romans 5:6-8,10 ...
- While we were still _____, _____, _____, and _____ of God, Jesus died for us.
- I must live with the attitude of "the cats have to _____".
- Luke 10:25-37 ...
 - The Samaritan humbled himself and treated the man who was always against him with _____ and _____.
 - Jesus tells me to _____ and _____ likewise.
