

THE PARABLE OF THE SEED

--- John 12:12-36 ---

“The Parable of the Seed”
John 12:12-36
(Page #1065)

On what we call _____, Jesus rides into Jerusalem as King.

- We have the advantage of knowing the whole story, the disciples were living it _____.
- When Jesus says that the hour has come for Him to be glorified, that sounds like _____ news. (12:23)
- When Jesus says that He will be lifted up, that sounds like _____ news. (12:24-34)
- If I am _____ to God, why would He allow me to _____?

The Parable of the Seed . . .

- The glory of a seed is not in being a _____.
- The glory of a seed is only seen when it _____ and produces fruit.
- This Parable of the Seed is not just something to be believed about Jesus, it is something to be _____ by each of us. (12:26)
- The glory of God is best seen in us, not as we remain a _____, but as we are buried in life and continue to live by _____ and produce good fruit.
- To produce good fruit, we have to grow _____.
- How we live _____ matters.
- I have to grow deep roots for the _____.
