"Stellar"
John 1:3-9; 8:12
(Page #1049)

Vacation Bible School Theme: "Shine _____ Light"

- "You are the _____ of the world. A city in a hill cannot be _____..." - Matthew 5:14-16
- Jesus is the one true _____. (John 1:3-5; 8:12)
- We may be "the light of the world", but the _____ of our light is _____.
- We are to live and speak in such a way that what people see and hear _____ in us is the life, love, truth, and grace of Jesus.
- Shining Jesus' light is not just our VBS theme, it's a _____ and _____ given to us directly from Jesus.

"When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, 'I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.'"
- John 8:12

- Do you _____ that people who follow Jesus, instead of walking in the dark, will walk in the light and see _____?
- Pray for our Vacation Bible School:
For some, that seeds will be planted so that they will come to follow Jesus and be filled with the _____ of _____.

For some, that seeds will be planted so that they will reflect the light of Jesus and help others reach out to Jesus and _____ Him.

- Vacation Bible School Lessons:
 - Sunday: "When life feels _____, shine Jesus' light"
Luke 2:1-20; Matthew 1:18-2:12
 - Monday: "When people don't _____, shine Jesus' light" Luke 19:1-9
 - Tuesday: "When _____ things happen, shine Jesus' light" Luke 19:28-40
 - Wednesday: "When people are _____, shine Jesus' light"
John 19-20
 - Thursday: "When people need _____, shine Jesus' light"
Acts 8:26-39
- This is important for our _____ to know. This is important for _____ to know.
