FROM EMPTY TO OVERFLOWING

—JOHN 2:1-11

"Signs: From Empty to Overflowing"

John 2:1-11

A sign is not the _____; it points to something _____ itself.

In the Old Testament, wine is always symbolic of God's joy and _____. So, to run out of the thing that symbolized joy and blessing was to say God must not be in this wedding.

The water pots represented the _____ way. They represented the heavy laws and burden that the people had to _____ God's favor and salvation.

Jesus shows that they can only cleanse themselves temporarily, but he came to cleanse and _____ them permanently.

Jesus said to fill these pots to the brim not to _____ to them, but to _____ what was inside.

The _____ wine shows the abundant blessing of Jesus Christ and the New Kingdom that he is bringing.

"...and his disciples _____ in him." John 2:11

Jesus takes what is _____ and turns it into something overflowing with life and joy.

Faith often looks like _____ before understanding.

Will you _____ in Him, and _____ Him what is empty?
